Every year from the five continents, Mazars partners take a flight to join their Annual Conference. This is a key event in the life cycle of our partnership, where the partners vote for the main strategic orientations, co-optation of new partners, integration of new countries and approve the consolidated accounts.

This document presents the main decisions taken during the Conference in December 2010. It highlights the Group’s steady growth dynamics.

STRENGTHENED PARTNERSHIP DYNAMISM

The December 2010 Conference held in Prague was an occasion to co-opt 58 new partners, who add up to the 51 new partners joining the Group as a result of the integration of new entities from 6 countries.

The newly appointed partners are representative of Mazars’ worldwide geographic coverage:

- Europe: 84 partners
- Africa and the Middle-East: 5 partners
- Asia-Pacific: 14 partners
- Americas: 6 partners

These co-optations bring the number of Mazars partners worldwide at 1st January 2011, to over 730.

ONGOING INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Mazars’ partners also approved several partnership growth operations, which allow the Group to extend its international presence to 5 new countries - Kenya, Nigeria, Peru, Sweden, Tajikistan - and to consolidate its service offering in Luxembourg.
